

First Baptist Church of Dayton Presents a Season of Song on June 2

May 6, 2019 – The public is invited to the First Baptist Sings concert on Sunday, June 2, at 5 p.m. at First Baptist Church in downtown Dayton at 111 West Monument Ave. The Chancel Choir, soloists and organists Gregory Land and R. Alan Kimbrough will present special music and choral highlights from 2018 and 2019 worship services, conducted by William Henry Caldwell, music director. “The Best of the Season” presentation will feature inspiring choral arrangements by Brahms, Mendelssohn, Tschesnokoff, Ivanoff, Wilberg, Jones, and more, as well as contemporary and traditional arrangements of gospel music and spirituals.

All are invited to celebrate the season with First Baptist musicians and special guests in concert, followed by a reception in Fellowship Hall. A freewill offering will be taken, but no tickets or admission fees are required. Free parking is available for the concert in the parking lot adjacent to the church building.

First Baptist Church of Dayton is a welcoming and affirming congregation that participates in a range of outreach, social justice, and community service activities in Dayton and the Miami Valley, as well as a special mission in El Salvador. Founded in 1824, First Baptist Church is a member of the American Baptist Churches U.S.A. and supports numerous ministries of the denomination.
